KEEPING OUR CHILDREN SAFE

TALK ABOUT CHAT ROOM DANGERS WITH YOUR TEEN

Online chat rooms are great places for people to connect over shared interests and ideas. But for young children and teenagers who may not be internet-savvy, they're also a great place for predators to lay groundwork. In a chat room, anyone can be whomever they want — and predators hide behind personas of friends. Talk to your child about online safety rules, such as never agreeing to meet in person and never providing personal and identifying information. Review chats frequently to ensure that your child is engaging in safe conversations. For more tips on chat room safety, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Exposing the Dangers of Internet Chat Rooms" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

If you have any questions about the Safeguard the Children Committee contact: Alex Turcios - Director of Faith Formation at: aturcios@saintbarbaraparish.org

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friend,

Last Sunday afternoon several hundred Catholics from south of Carp all the way to Lompoc gathered down the street from us at San Roque Church. We were there to honor, welcome, and bless men and women from our local parishes who will be fully initiated into the Catholic Church at Easter.

Representing our St. Barbara parish were Teresa and Jason who will complete their entrance into the Catholic Church by being baptized here in the Mission church during the Easter vigil, on the night of April 11th. I ask you to pray for them as they prepare. They are powerful signs to us of how we can all say YES to the invitation of God.

For Jason and Teresa the path of conversion is marked by turning points, which is true for all of us, when we think about it. For those coming into the church, our Catholic tradition asks that during Lent these special moments be made public, with ritual and communal prayer. That's what was happening at San Roque last Sunday, as Bishop Barron led us in the Rite of Election – this rite highlights the point in the journey of new disciples when the Church accepts and sanctions them. In the presence of the Bishop, the ceremony becomes an outward sign of the choice that God has already made, a choice summed up in a phrase from the prophet Isaiah: You are mine.

In his homily Bishop Barron reminded us that before there was original sin there was an original blessing. The Garden of Eden is sign to us of God's desire for the fullness of life for us. With Teresa and Jason, we journey toward a full embrace of that blessing, new life in the Risen Christ.

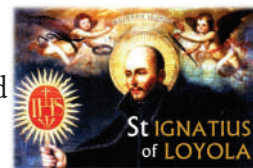

Gratefully,

Fr. Dan ofm
Pastor

Enriching Your Lent

Jesuit Father Noel Barber will present six evening sessions of meditation and reflection based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. The Exercises are a scripture-based series of meditations aimed at drawing all who participate into a deeper sense of God's presence and guidance in our lives. Fr. Barber has long experience working with groups and individuals and has designed this series as a special Lenten gift to those desiring a richer life in the Spirit. These sessions (over 6 weeks) lasting about one hour will continue on Mondays March 9th through March 30th at 7:00 p.m. in Serra Chapel.

MOVIE NIGHT- Of Gods and Men Friday, March 20th at 7pm Bonaventure Room

Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from religious conviction.

Eight French Christian monks live in harmony with their Muslim brothers in a monastery perched in the mountains of North Africa in the 1990s. When a crew of foreign workers is massacred by an Islamic fundamentalist group, fear sweeps through the region. The army offers them protection, but the monks refuse. Should they leave? or stay... come what may. This film is loosely based on the life of the Cistercian monks of Tibhirine in Algeria, from 1993 until their kidnapping in 1996.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Introducing Bishop Robert McElroy

Bishop Robert McElroy is one of the most important Catholic public intellectuals in the U.S, bringing his learning into dialogue with contemporary affairs on behalf of the common good. A priest of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, he was appointed auxiliary bishop by Pope Benedict in 2010 and Bishop of San Diego by Pope Francis in 2015.

His educational background is impressive. He graduated from Harvard College in three years, earned a master's degree in American history from Stanford, a licentiate from the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, a doctorate in moral theology from the Gregorian University in Rome, and a doctorate in political science from Stanford.

Bishop McElroy has written two books, drawing on his expertise in Catholic Social Teaching: The Search for an American Public Theology and Morality and American Foreign Policy. The first explores the legacy of John Courtney Murray, SJ, who had a major influence on the Vatican II Declaration on Religious Liberty, the signal contribution of the U.S. to the world church.

The bishop's motto is the title of that document: Dignitatis Humanae – human dignity, the fundamental principle of CST. We'll explore what Bishop McElroy has to say about voting in the coming weeks.

PEANUT BUTTER & JELLY DRIVE!

March 21 and 22

We, the Confirmation program, will be taking a collection of peanut butter and jelly jars before all the Masses the weekend of March 21st/22nd. The jars of peanut butter and jelly go to fill the shelves at the Catholic Charities pantry in Santa Barbara. As parents, you know that a PB&J sandwich can go a long way for a kid for a school lunch. Peanut butter and jelly are some of the most needed items at the pantry. Often, those shelves are empty. Thank you in advance for your generous contributions to this drive! This could be a great opportunity to talk about almsgiving as a family during this Lenten season.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Last weekend, Archbishop Gomez invited all Catholics to make their annual commitment to 2020 Together in Mission Appeal. This year St. Barbara Parish has been asked to raise $64,000. If you and your family have not had the opportunity to make your pledge, I ask you to complete a pledge card found in the pews, or make your pledge online by visiting ourmissionla.org/give.

Your gifts to Together in Mission ensure that every Catholic living in the Archdiocese has a parish to celebrate their faith and access to Catholic school education. You are living your faith through your actions when you support Together in Mission.
